Dear Susan,

This letter is to inform you that starting from today, you are dismissed from our restaurant Le Chefs as a cook assistant due to your poor performance over these 6 months.

During the hiring process, your manager has discussed with you about the restaurant expectation and it was presented to you again during your orientation. Then you also agreed on signing the documents about the job descriptions and others.

During your service in the Le Chef restaurant, you have failed to perform tasks in the first few weeks. In the fifth week, you were offered coaching and additional training that you turned down. In the 7th week, your performance keeps decreasing with rates under 50% of your coworker with the same position.

To prevent us from making this decision, your manager also developed a performance improvement plan to help you get better at work. During this moment, we got 10 complaints from customers and your coworkers that you didn't prepare everything well. This made the food quality decrease which made us go viral some days ago. In the end, it affects our business.

You will get paid for the sick days or vacation you didn't take along with the final paycheck. You can receive the paycheck by transfer, mail, or arrange a meeting with me after calling at (555)555-555 to pick the payment.

Please make sure we have your current address so we can send you the payment details and other documents for your benefits.

Sincerely

Elena Muloeq

Manager of Le Chef
